

Maths Homework – Times Tables Rockstars

Week 6 Homework.

For your homework this week, please log onto Times Tables Rockstars and have a go at playing a few of the games. Your log in details have been given to you today and stuck in the front of your study log. The times tables have been set to a level in which your teacher thinks you should be able to do. You can access the game on a computer or an IPAD. If you do not have access to a computer, please tell your teacher and we will find time for you to complete it. We would like you to have a go in the garage 5 times. Please initial in the boxes below once you have done this.
